

Our Mission

We believe the heart of healthcare is service to others. Our single goal is to provide affordable, accessible, first-rate healthcare that improves the health and well being of the people we serve and raises the quality of life for all concerned. Working in partnership with communities, we constantly seek to build healthcare systems that are locally focused and nationally recognized as the standard by which community hospitals are judged.

Our Vision

Los Alamos Medical Center will become a regional center of excellence, serving as the quality provider of cost-effective health care for Northern New Mexico.
